The post of Headmaster's Asst. and Medical officer in the J.C. school, Bellary, was created in 1936, as temporary and non-pensionable and a private medical practitioner was appointed to it on a fixed pay of Rs.50 a month. In G.O. No. 2870, Home, dated 6.6.39, a scale of pay of Rs.50-10-80 was sanctioned for the post, but the post was ordered to continue to be temporary and non-pensionable. In G.O. No. 693, Home, dated 11.2.41, the Govt. accepted the proposal of the C.I. to appoint a Sub Asst. Surgeon of the Medical dept. to the post. Since a Sub Asst. Surgeon in the regular cadre is to be appointed to the post his service will be pensionable, and the arrangement is not temporary except in the sense that ~~the arrangement~~ it is liable to be altered at any time by Govt. ~~The~~ This is, therefore, a permanent arrangement. The previous arrangement was temporary ~~in the sense~~ because ~~that~~ a private practitioner was appointed and the post was non-pensionable.

*This is the pay of Sub Asst. Surgeons in the Medl. Dept.

The Government have accepted the suggestion of the Chief Inspector of Certified Schools that a Sub Assistant Surgeon of the medical department may be appointed to the post of Headmaster's Assistant and Medical officer of the Junior Certified School, Bellary The officer appointed is to draw pay in the scale of Rs. *65-7/2-100-8/2-124-9/2-160 plus a compensatory allowance of Rs. 20 p.m. for loss of private practice. The question now raised is whether the permanent cadre of Sub Asst. Surgeon in the medical department should not be increased by one post to provide for the deputation of an officer to the Jail department.

2. The post of Headmaster's Assistant and Medical Officer in the Junior Certified School, Bellary has all along been a temporary and non-pensionable one and carried a pay of Rs. 50-80. If the restriction that service in that post will be non-pensionable is to continue to operate, it will not be possible to depute to the jail department an officer of the medical department whose service in that department is qualifying for pension. Under the new arrangement, therefore, that restriction should be held to become inoperative. But there is no need to change the post from a temporary to a permanent one; that is, to create a permanent post of Sub Asst. Surgeon in lieu of the existing temporary post and thus ~~xx~~ to increase the permanent cadre of S.A.S. by one post. To meet the needs of the case, it is sufficient if a temporary post of Sub Asst. Surgeon on the usual ~~pay~~ scale plus Rs. 20 for loss of private practice is created in lieu of the existing temporary post on Rs. 50-80 for such period as may be considered suitable.
